

50 THINGS TO DO WHILE WAITING FOR THE FERRY

1. Clean out your purse
2. Write a letter to a relative
3. Read a book or newspaper
4. Do a crossword puzzle
5. Knit or crochet
6. Exercise – walk laps around the parking lot
7. Play Frisbee
8. Clean out your glove compartment
9. Go to the bathroom
10. Listen to the radio
11. Clean out your wallet
12. Color in coloring book
13. Check when your driver's license expires
14. Balance your checkbook
15. Play "I spy"
16. Clean the inside of your car windows
17. Play cards
18. Walk to the ferry dock
19. File and polish your nails
20. Drink a latte
21. Send a postcard
22. Kick your tires
23. Have a picnic or tailgate party
24. Practice a musical instrument
25. Feed the birds
26. Count the cars in line
27. Tell a story
28. Browse through the shops
29. Go to the bathroom again
30. Phone a friend
31. Play tic-tac-toe
32. Take a nap
33. Sing
34. Repack the car
35. Make a Christmas wish list
36. Look for "Beautiful Orcas Island" license plate holders. (These are locals)
37. Jump rope
38. Play "Hang man"
39. Make reservations for whale watching or kayaking before arrival
40. Go to the bathroom again
41. Change the baby's diaper
42. Write thank you cards

43. Name the fifty states and capitals
44. Make a will
45. Start a journal about your trip
46. Count the number of different birds you see
47. Watch the funny things tourists do
48. Trace the ferry route onto your own paper from a brochure
49. Explore the shoreline by the ferry dock
50. Read the list "50 Things to Do While Waiting For the Ferry"

CAN YOU NAME THE TWELVE STATES THAT START WITH VOWELS?

* NAME 11 BODY PARTS THAT HAVE ONLY THREE LETTERS (5 are on the body and 6 are on the head.) (There is also a total of 20 three letter body parts if slang words are used.)